

Project Summary

New Royal Adelaide Hospital

South Australia

The new Royal Adelaide Hospital (nRAH), which opened in 2017, is the single largest infrastructure project in South Australia's history; and provides tertiary level services, including the full range of complex medical, surgical, diagnostic and support services. The scale of new Royal Adelaide Hospital cannot be underemphasised. Providing world-class healthcare to the Adelaide community, the nRAH is one of Australia's most advanced hospitals, seamlessly incorporating complex requirements of medical disciplines and cutting-edge innovations from the best international facilities.

Features include an emergency department capable of treating an extra 24,000 patients each year, 800 beds, 40 operating theatres, intelligent IT systems and a fleet of automatically guided vehicles.
